SPEAKER PROFILE

Chrisantha Jayasinghe or CJ, as we all know him, refers to himself as “The Growth Whisperer” because nothing brings him more joy than creating growth. Be it helping brands get more market share, helping organizations get more people to embrace their cause or even helping people to grow in knowledge and career opportunities, CJ enjoys the challenge.

With three illustrious decades of Marcom experience under his belt, CJ’s advertising track record covers stints in both client coordination and creative roles. This has given him the unique ability to sit with a client and identify their communication needs and work with a creative team to guide them to create solutions that will cut through the clutter, be relevant and provide solid bottom line results.

Over the years, CJ has enjoyed the privilege of working with some of the biggest brands in the market, including Coca Cola, Anchor, Mercedes Benz and Meadow Lea. His agency experience includes JWT and Phoenix O&M, prior to leading Sarva Colombo for the last 19 years.
